

CAMPUS ILLUSION

DATE: 06/07/26 – 10/07/26

MODE: ONLINE

Event Details:

Campus Illusions is a visually engaging activity that challenges participants to create forced-perspective illusions using photography and creative framing within the college premises. The event focuses on visual storytelling through camera angles, campus architecture, and imaginative execution.

Participants are required to create a portfolio of three creative visuals that transform ordinary campus spaces into surprising, humorous, or seemingly impossible scenes. Each illusion should also capture a relatable fresher emotion or experience, making the submission both artistic and meaningful.

Round Overview:

Round 1: The Illusion Frame

Participants must conceptualize and create three original forced-perspective visuals within the college campus. The entries should creatively use architecture, props, surroundings, and human interaction to produce optical illusions that appear impossible at first glance.

Each illusion should represent a common fresher feeling or experience. Submissions will be evaluated on originality, clarity of illusion, storytelling, and execution.

Rules:

- 1.This is an individual participation event.
- 2.Each participant must submit one portfolio containing exactly 3 creative visuals.
- 3.All entries must be created within the college premises.
- 4.The visuals should use forced perspective to create humorous, dramatic, or surprising optical illusions.
- 5.Each illusion must represent a common fresher feeling or experience.
- 6.Only original content created by the participant will be accepted.
- 7.The illusion should be clearly visible and understandable in the final visual.
- 8.Use of AI is strictly prohibited.
- 9.Participants must ensure that the concept remains appropriate and college-friendly.
10. The decision of the judges shall be final and binding.
